Tenth Annual Psychology Day at the United Nations

Title: Promoting Well-being in the 21st Century: Psychological Contributions for Social, Economic, and Environmental Challenges

Date Time Place

Thursday, 20 April 2017
3:00pm - 6:00pm
(Conference Room: To be determined)
United Nations Headquarters, New York, NY*
*Directions will be posted on the website and emailed to registrants prior to the event.

Theme

In 2015, the United Nations established the target of promoting mental health and well-being, as an important global priority, including it in the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development that outlines the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). This Psychology Day program considers ways in which theory, research, and practice in the psychology of well-being can increase the welfare of individuals globally to facilitate achievement of the SDGs, and to address the challenges of contemporary social, economic, and environmental systems.

Reception

(Location: To be determined yet will be nearby the United Nations)
